

A new Head of Communications at The Association des enseignantes et des enseignants de l'Ontario (AEFO)

OTTAWA, Mai 2, 2022 — The Board of Directors and the Executive Director and Secretary-Treasurer of the Association des enseignantes et des enseignants franco-ontariens (AEFO), Anne Lavoie, are pleased to announce that Mélanie Routhier Boudreau has taken on the position of Head of Communications.

Prior to joining the AEFO, Mélanie Routhier Boudreau held the position of Director of Communications and Community Engagement at the Conseil des écoles publiques de l'Est de l'Ontario (CEPEO). She has also worked for TFO Media Group as a series producer and manager of digital content and partnerships for three years and as a public affairs reporter for seven years. She is a member of the Board of Directors of Montfort Renaissance and the Board of Directors of the Festival franco-ontarien.

Media calls and inquiries can be directed to her as of today.

The AEFO has about 13,000 members and represents French-language elementary and high school teachers in Ontario, from both Catholic and public school boards, and professional and support staff working in various French-language workplaces.
