

AEFO Annual General Meeting

OTTAWA, February 24, 2017 – More than 150 delegates from the Association des enseignantes et des enseignants franco-ontariens (AEFO) are expected at the union’s annual general meeting to be held February 25 and 26 at Toronto’s Hilton Toronto Airport hotel. It is the first AGM held under the organization’s new governance structure. Delegates will work, most notably, on a complete redesign of AEFO’s constitution and bylaws.

Two guests will speak to delegates Sunday: the Minister of Education, the Honourable Mitzie Hunter, as well as MPP and leader of the Ontario Progressive Conservative Party, Patrick Brown.

Media

Media should register in the foyer of the York Ballroom (lower level) or contact Marilyne Guèvremont directly at 613 850-6410 upon their arrival.

Saturday, February 25

8:30 am Start of annual general assembly

Sunday, February 26

10:00 am Speech by the Minister of Education, the Honourable Mitzie Hunter

11:00 am Speech by MPP and leader of the Ontario PC Party, Patrick Brown

The AEFO has about 10,000 members and represents French-language elementary and high school teachers in Ontario, from both Catholic and public school boards, and professional and support staff working in various French-language workplaces.

- 30 -

For information:

Marilyne Guèvremont

Director – Communications Services

mguevremont@aefo.on.ca, 613 850-6410